7.0 Superintendent Report

7.1 Superintendent’s Report – Dr. Savoia spoke of the following:

- District Goals Presentation
- HIB Reports
- Union Beach Athletics/Wrestling
- College Acceptances
- Scholarship Applications
- NJSBA
  - The Ten Things Every School Board Candidate Should Know Before Taking Office www.njsba.org
  - Transgender Workshop on December 1, 2016.
- Upcoming Events
8.0 Board Secretary’s Report – Mr. Rapolla

- The auditors presented the audit this evening. Overall the audit was very positive and the district is in a strong position.
- There is one finding which resulting in a correction action plan. Capital Funds were misbudgeted into Fund 11 instead of Fund 12. The corrective action has already taken place by the auditors reclassifying the expenses in the correct place for financial statement purposes.
- The district was proactive and tested for lead from three samples from each school and were pleased to get results showing no lead.
- NJDOE developed a mandatory testing program with the EPA. As a result of very formal guidelines which required testing by July 1, 2016, from every water fountain, kitchen sink, ice maker, etc.
- The district will be accepting a quote at the next meeting from Westchester Environmental Engineers, the majority of which will be refundable by the state.
- With Benny retiring, we are replacing the custodial position with someone in house who will spend half the day doing custodial work and the other half day in maintenance to do repairs on both buildings. We will be recommending Dominick Ivey for the position.
