2.0 Presentation – Public Hearing for the 2015-2016 Keyport District Budget

At this time, Superintendent Savoia and Business Administrator Edward McManus gave a presentation on the 2015-2016 Budget. The PowerPoint slide presentation is attached to the minutes.

3.0 Communications – Dr. Savoia
3.1 Letter of retirement was received on April 21, 2015, from Catherine Cornell, Central School PreK Teacher, effective July 1, 2015. Resolution 10.1 under personnel.

3.2 Letter of resignation was received on April 21, 2015, from Jacqueline Tesoriero, Keyport High School Teacher, effective June 30, 2015. Resolution 10.2 under personnel.

3.3 Letter of retirement was received on April 30, 2015, from Judith Zdanewicz, Central School Teacher, effective July 1, 2015. Resolution 10.3 under personnel

4.0 Public Participation – Agenda Items

4.1 Dr. Ed McNamara, Maple Place Keyport asked the following questions:
   • Does the budget include new staff?
   • What is the status of foreign languages such as French and Italian?
   • Is Home Economics changing?
   • Has the district reached a point where Spanish is the language to go to?
   • The General Fund budget is going up 4% this year, it went up 4% last year and there are rumblings that it will go up 4% next year. I think you (the district) are living beyond your needs. Given all these factors together in the near future, something has got to give. To build a super structure and not be able to support it is a problem.
   • I believe our students should be offered the same opportunities as Union Beach students with the ability to attend Red Bank and Hazlet
   • The future as I see it is dire

4.2 Mr. Mike Lane, First St, Keyport stated:
   • He said he looked at last year’s budget presentation and the same issues were discussed, the drop in Union Beach tuition as well as the concern with the dependence on excess surplus to budgets. Mr. Lane said the Board should establish a new paradigm. Mr. Lane said he lived on the (Keyport) waterfront and his taxes will go up more than the taxes on an average house in Keyport. He said that given the district position with Banked Cap, is the district on the road to an additional 4% increase next year? Mr. Lane emphasized that “we have to think long term”. Mr. Lane said he had information on abandoned properties and he spent a day distributing flyers and the “housing stock in Keyport is in bad shape”. He said there are currently 88 abandoned properties in Keyport. Mr. Lane said that if the district increases taxes 4% every year by using Banked Cap, when will this end? Mr. Lane emphasized that we need a paradigm shift. He asked what the plan was for debt service. He asked what the plan was for line 580 (Budgeted Fund Balance Operating Budget). He said you will need to go to voters. You need to change the track. Mr. Lane closed his remarks by stating “I am concerned you couldn’t have saved $170,000 in the budget.”
